

NEWS RELEASE

Media Contact:

Ricardo Santiago
Public Information Officer
213-257-2000
RSantiago@da.lacounty.gov
Twitter: @LADAOOffice

March 9, 2017

Valencia Man Found Guilty in Burbank Domestic Violence Stabbing

A 31-year-old man has been found guilty of stabbing his ex-girlfriend's mother and her roommate at a Burbank home, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Carolina Lugo said Cameron Reed Hansen of Valencia was found guilty yesterday of two counts of attempted voluntary manslaughter and one count of injuring a girlfriend in case GA095834.

The jury also found that Hansen was armed with a knife and caused great bodily injury.

Sentencing is scheduled for May 11 in Department F of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Pasadena Branch. The defendant may face 14 years in state prison.

On March 3, 2015, the defendant went to his ex-girlfriend's home a day after they broke up and began attacking and biting her, according to court testimony. When her mother and her roommate came to the victim's aid, Hansen stabbed both women multiple times, the prosecutor said.

The three victims survived the attack.

The case was investigated by the Burbank Police Department.

About the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Los Angeles County District Attorney Jackie Lacey leads the largest local prosecutorial office in the nation. Her staff of nearly 1,000 attorneys, 300 investigators and 800 support staff members is dedicated to protecting our community through the fair and ethical pursuit of justice and the safeguarding of crime victims' rights.